

DEPARTMENT OF PERIODONTICS
AND ORAL IMPLANTOLOGY

The department of Periodontics deals with motivation & maintenance of oral hygiene procedures, gingival & alveolar bone care procedures & also provides instruction & clinical experience in dealing with the etiology, diagnosis, prevention & treatment of diseases of the periodontium in adults. Various treatment procedures are oral prophylaxis, gum care surgeries, periodontal flap surgeries, alveolar bone grafting surgeries & advanced gum surgeries like smile designing, micro periodontal plastic surgery & recent advancements includes oral implantology, usage of lasers & peri implant care & ridge augmentation. A special emphasis on medically compromised patients.

DEPARTMENT PROFILE:

- Students will get trained in third & fourth year BDS curriculum.
- Shall acquire the skills to diagnose & treat various gingival & periodontal diseases.
- Shall improve the skill to perform dental oral prophylaxis & maintenance of oral health care.
- Aim of this department is to focus more on prevention of various gingival and periodontal problems.

- Goal of this department is to provide the undergraduate students with a strong educational foundation in periodontics for their future career in dentistry & to contribute new knowledge through basic & clinical research globally.
- Clinics are well equipped with advanced equipments, materials & diagnostic aids to learn & expertise all the treatment modalities in periodontics under the continuous guidance, supervision of efficient and dedicated teaching faculty to motivate the students towards research aspects.
- A well equipped minor operation theatre as per center of Disease controls and Prevention norms is available for implant cases and laser treatment for periodontal diseases.

DEPARTMENT OF PERIODONTICS & ORAL IMPLANTOLOGY

